CHEVAL BLANC RANDHELI EXPANDS ITS FINE DINING OFFERING WITH A TEPPANYAKI BAR OVERLOOKING THE INDIAN OCEAN

RANDHELI, MAY 2018

Cheval Blanc Randheli is enriching its fine dining offering with the installation of a bar entirely dedicated to teppanyaki for this new season.

Facing the lagoon, the Chef works right at the teppan in front of the guests, like an artist adjusting the precision of the heat on his griddle to enhance the flavours and bring out all of the subtle tastes created by this style of cooking.

In an extension of the Le Diptyque restaurant, this teppanyaki bar is ideally located on the beach a few metres from the sea, allowing you to dine at the lagoon's edge while admiring the Chef's performance.

This Japanese culinary art is particularly suited to summer cuisine: the technique reveals the delicacy of the raw ingredients through the cutting, seasoning and cooking of the meat, fish and vegetables.

On the menu: beef sourced from Japan, marinated chicken, rock lobster caught in the Maldives, and fresh vegetables from the Chef's garden.

Le Teppanyaki du Diptyque will win over gourmet fans in search of performance and refined cuisine, in Cheval Blanc Randheli's distinctively warm, intimate and contemporary atmosphere.
