LITTLE PIRATES TREASURE HUNT

« Once upon a time, there was a Captain Cheval Blanc. The story goes that he would hide on the island of Saint-Barthélemy on Flamands Beach, the most beautiful beach in the Caribbean. The inhabitants of the island say that before setting sail to go to the island of Randheli in the Maldives, he would hide his treasure... »

Our youngest guests are invited on an exploration of the tropical garden and secret corners of the Maison for an exciting treasure hunt filled with puzzles and clues on special pirate cards! Equipped with telescopes, compasses and hats, they become true adventurers in search of gold and precious stones hidden by the legendary Captain Cheval Blanc.

Guided by the sound of nature and the advice of Be, passionate yoga teacher, our little ones discover at their own rhythm this ancestral practice, alone or with their parents.

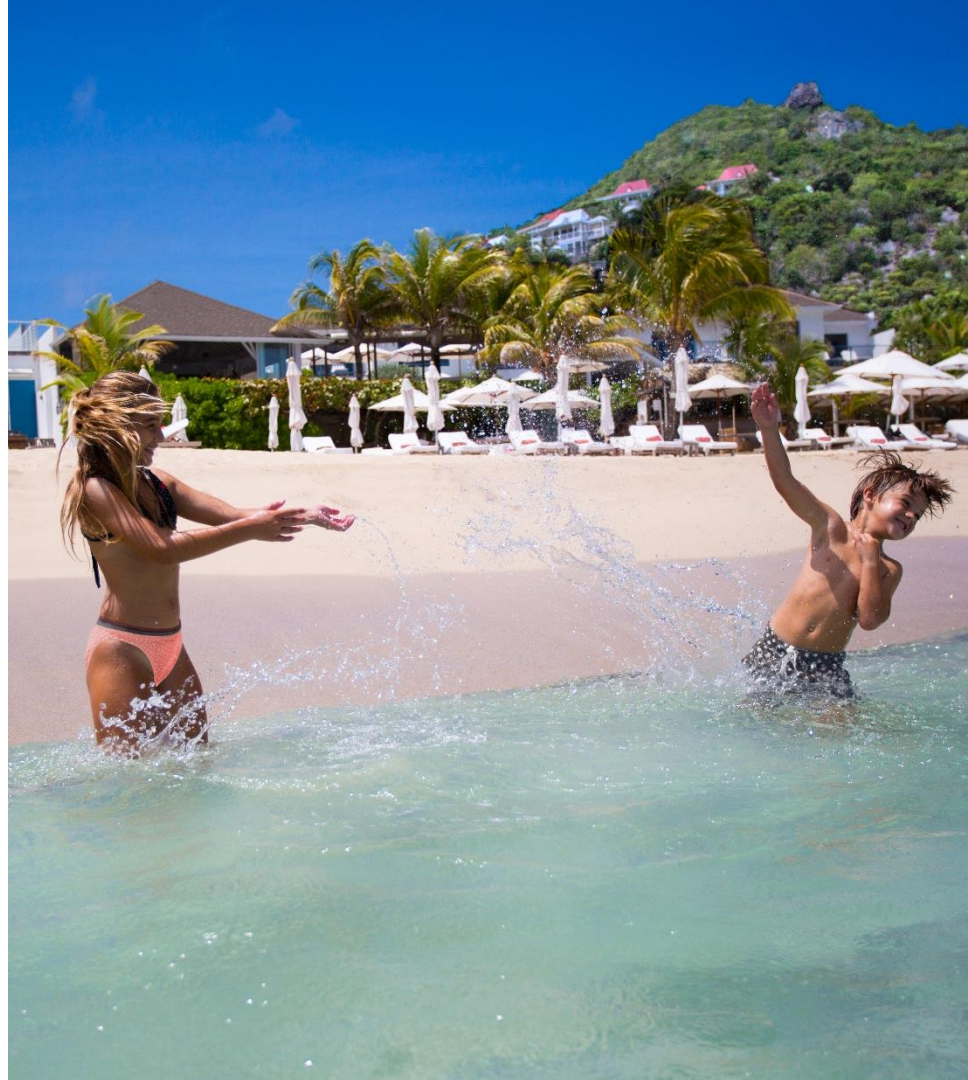

Downward facing dog pose, cat, tree or stork pose, the children bloom with movements adapted to their age and enjoy the many benefits of yoga in all simplicity.

To close the session, our Chef offers the young yogis a goûter made of fresh juices and delicious gourmandises.

GOOD NIGHT AND SWEET DREAMS

As the sun sets at the corner of Flamands Bay, the little ones begin to rub their eyes, tired from having explored the Maison's tropical gardens, fed the turtles, jumped into the waves and made one thousand discoveries. With the head full of memories and the eyes filled with stars, it is time to have a rest.

Nestled against your child in the hollow of its teepee, transform his bedtime ritual in a privileged moment of sharing. Choose with him the friend who will stay for the night: the brave white horse or the sweet doll?

They can then enjoy a last delight, some hot milk with honey and its sweet gourmandise with a funny shape, while listening to the story chosen for them: "A la poursuite de Cheval Blanc".

The youngest ones slip into sleep, lulled by the delicate sound of the music box. Tomorrow, another day full of laughter and adventures waits for them.
